

BELFAST RIOTERS KILL 9 IN HOME RULE PROTEST

To-Night's Weather—Partly Cloudy.

"10 to 3"
DAILY WALL STREET
FEATURE THIS EDITION

The World.

WALL STREET
FINAL EDITION
THE EVENING
WORLD

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

VOL. LXII. NO. 21,903—DAILY.

Copyright, 1921, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1921.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE THREE CENTS

PUSH ACTION ON JAPAN'S CHINA CLAIMS

NINE DEAD IN BELFAST RIOTS AS STREET FIGHTING OPENS FIRST HOME RULE IN NORTH

Gunmen Resume Sniping After Night of Clashes With Military.

LIKE REIGN OF TERROR.

Lloyd George and Sinn Fein Confer on His Reply to Craig.

BELFAST, Nov. 22 (Associated Press).—Rioting that had claimed at least six victims in Belfast by a violent afternoon afternoon opened the first day's actual functioning of the new Home Rule Act of last spring.

Snipers began their activities in the York Street area under cover of the mist of dawn, when one man was killed and several others were wounded. Two other deaths occurred later.

During the shooting of the early hours, a bullet pierced a gas pipe in a house on Thompson Street, the escaping gas causing the death of three persons, James Macdonald, his wife and his niece, who were overcome while asleep.

As the afternoon wore on several other persons were wounded as the result of sniping operations.

While the special constabulary is under the control of the Northern Parliament, the regular police force is still under the former, whose future status not having yet been determined.

The police who were wounded yesterday died in the night. Their deaths bring the total since the rioting began on Sunday to nine. Several wounded persons are being treated in the hospital.

Scarcely a day had passed since the rioting, the disturbance was at night. One house in Newtownards Street was looted and burned.

BELFAST, Nov. 22 (United Press).—A virtual reign of terror spread tonight to day as the Ulster Government assumed the powers of Home Rule.

Mobs attacked pedestrians, hordes wheeled down the half-deserted streets and sniping began in the houses where snipers were hidden, the rioters were fighting revolver duels.

Hidden on houses and barricaded in dim doorways, snipers fired into the streets. In York Street, one was killed and an ally died of wounds, while several were seriously injured.

Belfast was under a low key, the excitement of the morning news was a low key in the city.

Mr. Craig, the Sinn Fein leader, was among the persons who were walking along the streets on their way to work.

The first riot began last Friday afternoon, when several mobs of snipers, they have been sniping ever since, they have been sniping ever since, they have been sniping ever since.

(Continued on Fourth Page)

NEAR BEER TOO NEAR, PERMITS TO BE REVOKED

Source of Beers Investigated by Federal Prohibition Unit.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Investigation of sources of beer permits for the manufacture of beer has been set in motion today by the federal prohibition unit.

Investigation has also been started into the sources of beer permits for the manufacture of beer has been set in motion today by the federal prohibition unit.

CHRISTINE NILSSON, LAST OF SWEDISH NIGHTINGALES, DIES

CHRISTINE NILSSON

One of the World's Greatest Opera Singers Is Stricken in Stockholm.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 22.—Miss Christine Nilsson, Swedish soprano, one of the greatest singers of the world, died at the age of 58.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

With the possible exception of Jenny Lind and Adolphe Patti, she was the most famous of the world's great singers.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

She was born in 1863, and her career was one of the most brilliant in the history of opera.

TEARING CLOTHES WAS MISS RAPPE'S HABIT, HE ASSERTS

New Defense of Arduelle Claims Actress Did So Whenever She Was Drinking

HOTEL MAID ON STAND.

Tells of Hearing Grooms—Alice Blake Gives Details of Comedian's Party.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Alice Blake today took the stand in the trial of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle and testified the notes of a statement she had given the police immediately after the death of Virginia Rappe, in connection with which Arbuckle is charged with manslaughter.

"The statement, which reviewed the often-told story of Miss Rappe's death, was read to the jury by the defense.

Miss Blake was pretty dressed in a dark tailored suit with short skirt and green hat. She smiled at the attorneys as she took the stand. They questioned her as to the accuracy of her memory as to some details of the statement.

An attempt to the State to introduce a second and more lengthy statement failed.

Claims that Virginia Rappe often tore off her clothes when intoxicated were set up by the Arduelle defense, when following Miss Blake, A. S. Arbuckle, who brought Miss Rappe to the trial, took the stand and testified in cross-examination he had seen Miss Rappe drinking "two or three times" when drinking.

The statement was the separation of today's session.

Josephine Kova, chambermaid at the St. Francis Hotel, said she listened outside Arbuckle's room while his party was in progress.

"I heard a woman scream, 'Oh, my God! my God!' and then I heard 'Arbuckle!'

Arbuckle, from authorities of Madison County, Cal., have been received that possession of Mrs. Barbara Belmont, complaining witness against Arbuckle, will not be pressed in such a manner as to hamper the Arbuckle prosecution. A warrant for his arrest charging (Arbuckle) was issued several days ago at Madison, but has not been served.

Early today a lot drawn when court resumed today. As the proceedings and under way no because today's session is the first after news was received from his family.

He is now in the hospital, and his condition is such that he cannot be removed from the hospital.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

FIANCEE CATCHES EYE OF LANDRU AND FAINTS, SCREAMING

"Bluebeard" Smiles as Restoratives Are Used for Second Time on Mlle. Segret.

HE WAS KIND, SHE SAYS.

Prisoner Is Now Too Weak to Walk Alone, but His Nerve Is Unshaken.

VERSAILLES, Nov. 22.—Terrified by a furious glance from "Bluebeard" Landru, Mlle. Segret fainted in the witness box at his trial today on a charge of murdering ten of his 250 sweethearts.

Mlle. Segret was one of the fiancées who escaped after it is alleged, "Bluebeard" had plotted her death.

The girl, as she testified, avoided Landru's gaze. He leaned over the table trying to catch her eye. She became increasingly nervous and suddenly began sobbing. Landru rose from his chair. The witness looked toward him, gave a scream and fainted. Court was suspended and restoratives were given her. When she regained her senses she sobbed violently. During this scene Landru sat calmly in his chair, a smile on his face.

In a broken voice the girl told the court of how she had met Landru on a street car and learned to love him.

"I conceived a real and beautiful love for him," she said, "and he seemed to have found a true affection for me. I met him on a street car. I was standing in the aisle when he glanced toward me. He arose and gave me his seat. Then began a courtship—the beautiful moment of my life."

The girl drew her face close to her shoulders and gazed silently for a moment at the floor. Then she said she loved Landru so much that she immediately broke off her engagement to marry another man.

She seemed to have steeled herself against a repetition of her complete breakdown of yesterday, and insisted that the attorneys proceed with their questions.

"I did not know what I was doing at the trial," she told the court.

"Did you see any human faces or things in the box?" she was asked.

"No."

"Did you see any weapons about the place?"

"There was a revolver and a saw-edged knife."

The girl declared the "terrible" contents of Landru's box every night.

When she withdrew, in answer to the stand and testified that in the box she had examined Landru's weapons, she seemed to be in the throes of a nervous breakdown.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

At the trial, the defense will try to show that the woman was not in a state of mind to give evidence.

ENGLAND ORDERS RECRUITING FOR NAVY TO BE SUSPENDED

Takes Definite Step to Limit the Service, Making Exceptions in Only a Few Special Classes.

(United Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Britain's second step toward the limitation of naval armament was taken today in an order suspending the recruiting of ordinary seamen.

The Admiralty, however, provided for continuation of recruiting certain special classes.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE PLANS 'AMERICAN' POLITICAL PARTY TO RULE POLICE AND COURTS

'Allied Citizens of America' to Coerce Authorities in Liquor Cases.

MEMBERS IN 3 CLASSES.

intention Is for League to Determine What Is to Be a 'Moral Issue.'

The "Yonkers Plan" of Prohibition enforcement, described by William H. Anderson in a pamphlet just issued, discloses not only a working system of private espionage leading to the intimidation of public officials, judges and juries, but the idea of the formation of a political party in the United States to be dominated for all time to come by the Anti-Saloon League and various denominational churches which will hold the balance of power in all elections in which a "moral issue" is involved. It is intended by the promoters of the movement that the Anti-Saloon League shall determine what is to be a "moral issue."

In his pamphlet Mr. Anderson gives credit for the election of Gov. Miller to the "Allied Citizens of America," an incorporated body which has been functioning for some time in the State of New York, and he also claims credit for the "Allied Citizens of America" through the Anti-Saloon League for the passage of the Miller-Lake act in the last Legislature. On page 32 of the pamphlet he says:

"The Allied Citizens of America, incorporated to uphold American morals and the United States Constitution, offers the best means and platform for proposed to 'Americanize' the work."

"In addition, it works. With over 200,000 members, it is the largest organization of its kind in the United States, and it is the only organization of its kind in the United States which has a national headquarters."

On page 35 Mr. Anderson states:

"It was almost entirely made effective as well as easily accepted for the Anti-Saloon League of New York to create the issue and so arouse the people of the State that they elected to Governor a man who not only in the passage of an enforcement code making it the duty of local police officers to enforce Prohibition, but also in the removal of officials who refused to enforce it."

Released With Their Exports When Ransom Fails to Arrive.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Four American women, who were held in Mexico, were released today when their ransom failed to arrive.

The women were held in Mexico for the purpose of raising a ransom for their release. The ransom was not received, and the women were released.

The women were held in Mexico for the purpose of raising a ransom for their release. The ransom was not received, and the women were released.

The women were held in Mexico for the purpose of raising a ransom for their release. The ransom was not received, and the women were released.

The women were held in Mexico for the purpose of raising a ransom for their release. The ransom was not received, and the women were released.

JAPAN'S HOLD ON CHINA FIRST QUESTION NOW BEFORE NINE NATIONS IN PARLEY

Occupancy of Shantung and Kiao-chow Most Important Subject to Be Dealt With in Regard to China's Ten Points.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (Associated Press).—Unanimous adoption of the resolutions declaring certain general principles for the settlement of Chinese questions by no means marks the efforts of the delegates in China's behalf.

It was stated today on British authority that it was the purpose of the Committee of the Whole on the Far East to press forward with the arrangement of details which, according to the agenda prepared for the committee's guidance, would include the important subjects of Japan's occupancy of Kiao-chow and the Shantung peninsula in part.

Instead of a number of separate agreements and treaties between China and various powers governing their relations in the Far East, it is the purpose of the Far East Committee to have the resolutions adopted yesterday, supplemented by detailed stipulations accepted by all of the parties, according to British spokesmen.

It is planned the resolutions adopted yesterday by the committee shall be regarded as covering the collective instead of the individual rights and privileges of all of the nations having an interest in China. Instead of a number of documents defining these relations with China it is believed there will be one document inclusive of all that should be perpetuated or adopted.

Senator Underwood of the American delegation brought forward the proposal today for the committee to examine China's fiscal affairs. His suggestion was said to have been adopted unanimously and Chairman Hughes was authorized to appoint the subcommittee later.

No additional resolutions regarding policies affecting China were adopted today by committee and further consideration of Chinese problems was postponed until 11 o'clock tomorrow, when another meeting of the delegates of the nine powers in committee of the whole will be held.

The subcommittee is to take up China's proposal for restoration of tariff autonomy which would remove the present restriction limiting to 5 per cent the duty collectible on Chinese imports.

There are left for the consideration of the committee:

Point 1, which prohibits not by force or threat to refuse to give up the Chinese region without China becoming a party to the League of Nations.

Point 2, which treats more specifically with the political and administrative integrity of China, viz., the responsibility of China, viz., the responsibility of China, viz., the responsibility of China.

Point 3, which provides for peaceful settlement of international disputes in the Pacific and the Far East, and Point 4, providing for future conference of the powers, as a basis for determination of common policies in relation to the Far East.

On the other hand, there have been exchanged among the armistice delegates with such unprecedented directness that with the conference only ten days old some of the experienced diplomats believe they can see, almost with precision, what will and will not be possible to accomplish.

Following the example of the American delegation in laying down a sweeping naval reduction proposal at the opening session, the representatives of the other powers have put aside, almost without exception, the diplomatic indirection that usually betrays such negotiations.

With the respective heads of the

With the respective heads of the

With the respective heads of the

With the respective heads of the